

Appearance Change for the FR-A8BL Stand-Alone Converter Option

Thank you for your continued patronage of Mitsubishi Electric drive control products.
 The appearance of the cooling fan of the FR-A8BL stand-alone converter option will be changed to show the compliance with the UKCA standard.

1. Products Affected

FR-A8BL1/A8BL2*1

*1 FR-A8BL1 (dedicated filter reactor) and FR-A8BL2 (dedicated reactor for PWM control) are stand-alone options for changeover between inverter and high power factor converter.

2. Details of Change

The UKCA mark will be added on the cooling fan of the products.
 The change does not affect the quality, performance, or specifications of the products.
