Change in UL File No. of AC Servo Amplifiers

Thank you for your continued patronage of the Mitsubishi Electric AC servo system. The UL file No. will be changed, and the schedule is shown below. This change does not affect the appearances and specifications of the products.

1. Target Model

All the UL-Listed servo amplifiers with their model names starting with "MR"

2. Details of the Change

UL file No. before and after the change

The UL file No. assigned by UL will be changed as in Table 1. If the corresponding Mitsubishi Electric UL file No. is on your factory inspection procedure (UL procedure) or other manuals, refer to the UL file No. after the change or overwrite the UL file No. to the one after the change.

Table 1. UL file No. before and after the change

	Before	After
File No.	E131592	E113619

3. Schedule

This change will be applicable from December 1, 2020.

The website of UL on which the UL file No. can be searched usually takes approximately a week to be updated.
